*The Quintessential College Town

That's how U.S. News & World Report describes Columbia, MO. Halfway between St. Louis and Kansas City, Columbia is located in the heart of the Show-Me State. Our city of 100,000 people combines small-town comforts, community spirit and low cost of living with big-city culture, activities and resources.

UCLA Dept. of Family Medicine

The Department of Family Medicine of the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA seeks a full-time BC/BE family physician to join its clinical faculty as a clinician/educator at the clinical instructor, assistant or associate professor rank in the health sciences series. Responsibilities include direct patient care, teaching residents, students and fellows, and participation in clinical research or other scholarly endeavors that will lead to academic promotion. Applicants who perform both obstetrics and inpatient medicine and speak Spanish will be given preference. Candidates must be eligible to work in the United States and licensed or licensable to practice medicine in the State of California.

Our inpatient service is located at the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center; we have two teaching Family Health Centers—one in Santa Monica and the other in Van Nuys in an LA County Comprehensive clinic. Both serve an ethnically diverse, underserved immigrant and vulnerable patient population. The Department of Family Medicine is involved in both resident and medical student education as well as fellowship training in research (NRSA), Sports Medicine and Addiction Medicine fellowships. We are one of four universities in the country that house the RW Johnson Clinical Scholars program for family physicians.

FAMILY MEDICINE FACULTY OPPORTUNITY WITH ALBANY FAMILY MEDICINE OF COMMUNITY CARE PHYSICIANS AND ALBANY MEDICAL COLLEGE

A private network of primary care specialists connected with the only area Academic Health Science Center, Albany Family Medicine is looking to expand to meet a growing patient base. The practice is located in the Capital Region of Upstate NY, at the crossroads of the Adirondack and Catskill mountains. We are equidistant from Boston and NYC; both within a scenic two hour drive. If you are interested in joining a practice known for its collegial, caring group of physicians and non-physician providers, looking to expand into areas of interest like community outreach, geriatrics, sports medicine and women's health; we are the practice worth considering. Our practice offers a state of the art facility with PharmD resources on site. We have had more than 5 years experience with EHRs and are part of a pilot reimbursement initiative to convert to a Patient Centered Medical Home Practice within our health center. Our area offers affordable housing, excellent public and private schools, safe neighborhoods and a great place to raise a family.

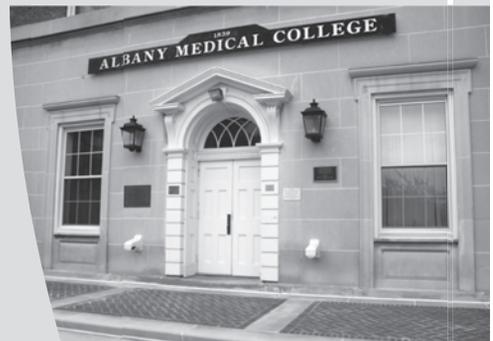

Medical student and residency education are of utmost importance in our group. We use both a tertiary care and a community hospital for inpatient medicine and obstetrics. Opportunities exist to teach and practice along side students and residents. Up to date clinical skills are also of utmost importance. Current faculty have interests in alternative medicine, OMT, women's health, OB/GYN, global health, adolescent medicine and geriatrics. Faculty consists of seasoned clinicians and educators as well as those more recently trained - a nice balance of a working team who complement one another. We are still growing and expanding into other new areas and there is room for more people to join the group.

Chief, Department of Family Medicine

Maine Medical Center

Portland, Maine

Tufts University School of Medicine Affiliate

centered around you

Maine Medical Center (MMC) is seeking a Chief for the Department of Family Medicine. This physician leader will have overall responsibility for the educational, clinical, research and administrative activities of the department.

The Department of Family Medicine consists of seven divisions:

- Sports Medicine
- Geriatrics
- Occupational Medicine
- Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine
- Community and Preventive Medicine
- Palliative Care
- Integrative Medicine

The department's residency program has a regional and national reputation for excellence in family medicine training, innovative faculty development and desirable training program for students. Currently there are 22 residents as well as a Sports Medicine Fellowship, Integrative Medicine Fellowship and the nascent Preventive Medicine Residency within the Department of Family Medicine.

Maine Medical Center is a 637-bed tertiary care academic health center and a strategic partner of the Tufts University School of Medicine, providing hands-on educational opportunities for 40 Tufts medical students annually under the Maine Track program. MMC also operates two state-of-the-art Family Medicine Centers that offer many opportunities for delivery of innovative clinical services and educational activities.

Maine Medical Center and its two Family Medicine Centers are located in Greater Portland, Maine. Portland, home to 250,000 people in the metro area, is a lovely and diverse New England coastal city offering an historic waterfront area, multi-season recreational opportunities and a wealth of cultural activities.
